

British Values Statement - Chew Stoke Out of School Club

Chew Stoke out of School Club are committed to serving its community. We recognise the multi-cultural and multi-faith nature of the United Kingdom and understand our important role of promoting these values. We are an inclusive club for all. This statement outlines the British Values that underpin our ethos.

Democracy

- We involve parents and children in decisions we make about the club.
- Children are involved in a democratic process e.g. voting for their dinner menu, voting for a film choice etc...

Individual Liberty

- We seek views and opinions of interested parties (parents, children and staff) through questionnaires.
- Within the club children are actively encouraged to make choices, knowing that they are in a safe and supportive environment.
- As a club we educate and provide boundaries for children to make choices safely.
- The ethos that is prevalent in Chew Stoke School is embodied in all we do in our club.

Mutual Respect

- Respect is embedded within our clubs rules (written by the children). Closely linked to Chew Stoke school's Golden Rules.
- Our PSHE values embody mutual respect through relationships and being a responsible citizen.

The rule of Law

- We have a clear behaviour policy, which is based on fairness and restorative practise.
- We regularly review behaviour in club with staff and committee. We encourage staff and children to manage behaviour positively.
- We promote Chew Stoke School's golden rules and refer to them within the club setting on a daily basis.

Tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs

- We share in the celebrations of Diwali, Chinese new year, Yom Kippur, Christmas, Hanukah etc..
- At Chew Stoke out of School Club there is a strong focus on Christian Values which are displayed around the setting.
